Career Guidance Program: Coding your Future

Name of the resource person : Dr. C. KarthiKeyan, M.A.B.Ed, Ph.D. CELTA

Date : 07.02.2022

Time : 01.30 pm - 03.30 pm

Venue : Sir C.V.Raman Auditorium

Number of benefits : 162

Designing your future will help you to start coding your future. You'll need both soft and hard skills to compete in the workplace. Are you underestimating the importance of softer skills? We've looked briefly at the softer written communication skills in this chapter and some simple techniques for improving them. You can go a step further by enrolling on some humanities courses where you'll develop your these skills even more. Written communication skills are only the tip of the soft skills iceberg. Teamwork, negotiation, conflict resolution, public speaking, motivating others and leadership are also important soft skills too.
